

I support the customer's right to retain the portability of their cell phone numbers for the purposes of convenience and to prevent cell phone companies from using their current position that restricts my ability to change service providers. Thank you.